

The Clerc Center, in a partnership effort with Hands & Voices Family Leadership in Language and Learning, is hosting the free online learning community event on Early Accessible Language.

The free online begins on March 10 -13.

The participants will view 3 learning videos, meet and interact online with other family members who also have a child who is deaf or hard of hearing, and join a live Q&A session with presenters and family members on March 13 at 6:30 pm (ET)/5:30 PM (CT)/4:30 PM (MT)/3:30 PM (PT)

The participants will learn about:

- Considerations for accessing and acquiring spoken English
- How American Sign Language can provide visual access to a full language that can benefit all babies regardless of their hearing ability
- What language access means for your child and family

To register for the free online event, go to <https://gallaudet.hobsonsradius.com/ssc/eform/Gd703RkTSS3Ex67c0R3F.ssc>